Browsing

Icons in the corner of a book cover tell you whether the title is audio or eBook. If the icon is black, the title is available. If it is gray, it has a wait list.

Checking Out

1. Visit the NEIBORS website at http://neibors.lib.overdrive.com; browse or search for an Ebook. Remember to use "Advanced Search" to immediately limit by format & availability. You can also view only currently available titles by clicking "Available Now" on your search results.

2. Look for your preferred format as a choice on an title, and click on "Borrow"

3. On "Bookshelf," you will be given the option to download your selection or "Return Title" if you've changed your mind. Clicking the Download button will allow you to select your desired format. *Note: Once you select a format, you may only be able to return the title via the software.

4. Select your desired format and click "Confirm & Download."

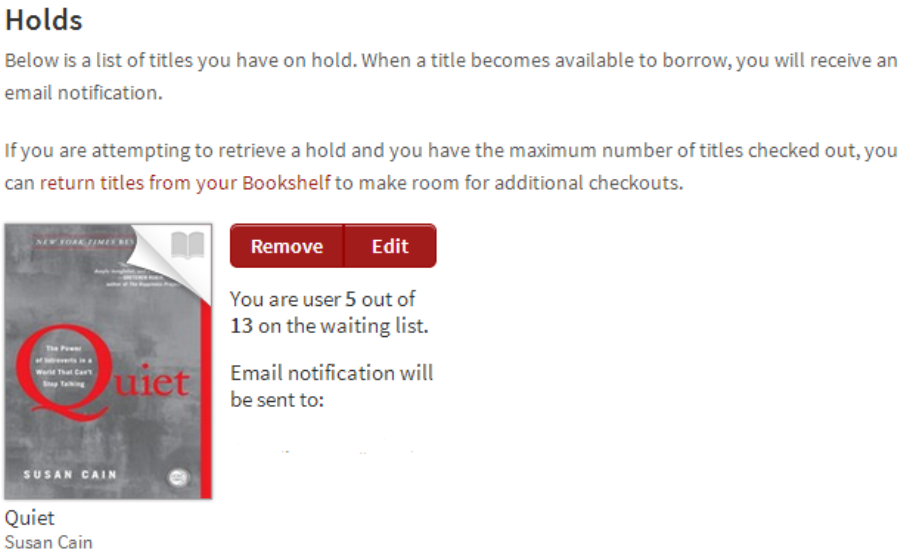
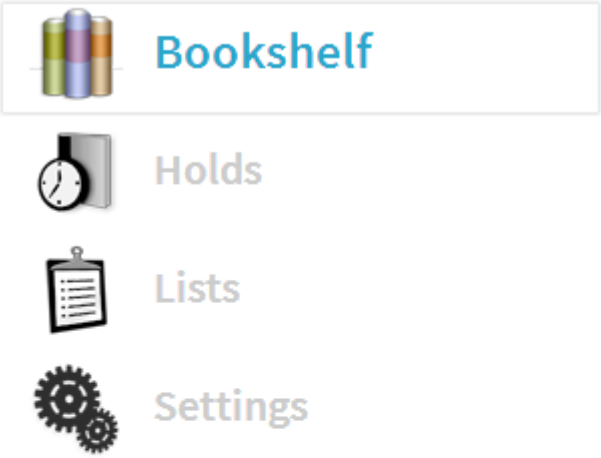
Holds

The Holds area now looks like this:



Returns will still be done by either Adobe Digital Editions (for eBooks), Overdrive Media Console (for audiobooks downloaded to a PC or Mac) or the the OverDrive Media Console app (for eBooks and audiobooks on a mobile device)– wherever the title was downloaded.



Bookshelf takes one to the items they have checked out or are in the process of checking out.

Holds will take one to their items on hold

Lists will take one to their wish lists.

Settings. NEIBORS does not offer additional lending period options at this time.
