April 18th @ 6:30 PM: Potluck & Pinterest Party — Join us in making craft projects inspired by Pinterest! You can bring your own projects to work on, or make one of ours. Food will be provided, but feel free to bring some to share. For April, we'll be making windowsill herb gardens. Please bring a medium-sized pot for planting.

Contact the Library to register: 319-624-2678.

April 11th @ 5 PM: Dementia Series: "The Basics" — This informational series, sponsored by the Alzheimer's Association, is being offered to help families recognize the early stages of Alzheimer's, various stages and treatments, and how to relate to friends and family members that may be going through this experience. In April, we will be focusing on "The Basics:" detection, causes, risk factors, stages and treatment of Alzheimer's disease. Also, note that the Alzheimer's Support Group still meets on the second Wednesday of the month @ 3:30 PM.

April 17th @ 6:30 PM: Book Club — There are two book selections for the April Book Club. One is the 2018 All Iowa Reads selection, "The Boys in the Bunkhouse: Servitude and Salvation in the Heartland" by Dan Barry. We will also discuss "Lab Girl" by Hope Jahren, which is the selection for the High School Community Read. Both books are available for check out at the Library, just ask at the Circulation Desk for a copy.

April 30th @ 6:30 PM: Green Thumb Magic — You don't need a yard to have a garden! Join the Senior Advocates to discuss container gardening, vegetables, annuals & perennials, raised beds, soil mix recipes, mulches and fertilizers. Benefit from Art Tellin's tips, hints and green thumb advice.
